Program participation and benefit eligibility

To be eligible for the Alberta HIV PrEP Program at no cost to the individual, patients must:

- be registered with the Alberta Health Care Insurance Plan and have a valid Personal Health Number (PHN); pseudo PHNs are not eligible under this program, and
- be the subject of a valid prescription for emtricitabine/tenofovir disoproxil fumarate 200 mg/300 mg from a registered designated prescriber for the Alberta HIV PrEP Program.

Prescriber eligibility

A registered designated prescriber for the Alberta HIV PrEP Program is a health care professional who is named on the Alberta Health Services Designated PrEP Prescriber List. These prescribers will have knowledge and expertise in HIV prevention to assess an individual's medical need and readiness for PrEP and agree to prescribe to high-risk individuals in accordance with the established provincial clinical guidelines.

For more information regarding patient eligibility under the Alberta HIV PrEP Program or how to become a designed HIV PrEP prescriber or to view the guidelines and designated prescriber list, please visit albertahealthservices.ca/info/Page16048.aspx or call Health Link by dialing 811 (toll-free number 1-866-408-5465).

Non-designated prescribers may continue prescribing emtricitabine/tenofovir disoproxil fumarate 200 mg/300 mg for HIV PrEP; however, these prescriptions will not be eligible for claim reimbursement through the Alberta HIV PrEP Program.

Claim processes

Pharmacies that participate in the Alberta Blue Cross Pharmaceutical Services Provider Agreement (PSPA) are able to direct bill eligible claims under the APHAP program. Claims will adjudicate according to the pricing outlined in the PSPA, which includes the Allowable Upcharge #1 (3%), the Allowable Upcharge #2 (7%) and the Dispensing Fee of $12.15.

The program provides for direct bill claims submission only. Patients who receive a prescription through the HIV PrEP Program are not eligible to claim for reimbursement.

When billing claims for the eligible product, Alberta Blue Cross requires that the claims be submitted electronically through the Alberta Blue Cross PRIDE-RT direct bill claim adjudication system with the following claim data elements:

- Carrier Code: 16 [Alberta Public Health Activities Program (APHAP)]
- Group number for all transactions must be 23464, Section 000
